

Richmond Harley-Davidson Hanover County, Virginia

Richmond Harley-Davidson is a 51,800 square foot Harley-Davidson Motorcycle dealership and 77,100 square foot motorcycle driver education area located in Hanover County, Virginia. McKinney and Company prepared the conceptual site design and also prepared the site plan drawings for construction. McKinney coordinated with the owner and the architect through the design process to develop a site that met the client's needs. McKinney oversaw the site plan through the Hanover County review and approval process.

Construction was completed in September of 2014.
